30th Annual Broward Aging Network Conference

ANNUAL CONFERENCE PROMOTES COMMUNITY ADVOCACY

The Aging & Disability Resource Center's 30th Annual Broward Aging Network Conference, titled "Older Americans: Connecting the Community," will be held, for the first time ever, at the Southwest Focal Point Senior Center in Pembroke Pines. This year's event is on Thursday and Friday, May 5-6.

The Conference features guest speakers, a variety of educational workshops, exhibitors, lunch, raffle and door prizes, as well as the opportunity to network within the senior community. Over 400 unduplicated seniors, caregivers, professionals, and other community advocates are anticipated to participate at the two-day event.

Registration, for seniors 60 and older, is $25 for both days, $15 for a single day. For professionals and community advocates, the cost is $60 for two days, $35 for one day. Lunch and morning refreshments are included. Additional sponsorship levels and exhibit opportunities also are available.

For more information, please contact Kathy Furey, Marie Laurent, or Anna Trout, at (954) 745-9567, or visit (www.adrcbroward.org).

The Aging & Disability Resource Center is the nonprofit umbrella organization charged with the responsibilities of planning, coordinating, monitoring, and funding programs designed to meet the needs of over 345,064 year-round Broward senior residents. As the prime advocate for local Older Americans, the ADRC contracts with administering organizations for the following programs: senior centers; senior day care; site meals; home-delivered meals; Alzheimer's in-home and facility respite; minor in-home repair; legal; transportation; homemaker; personal care; respite; emergency response; and case management.
